

Granddaddy Visits London

By: Nikki R. Porter

Hopefully you enjoyed reading Granddaddy Visits London. Unscramble the clues below to reveal words from the story.

1. p l a a i r e n

2. d d a g r a y n d d

3. t x a i b c a

4. l u a g e g g

5. b o k o

6. g r d n a m o h e t r

7. j k o e s

8. s p u r i e s r

Granddaddy Visits London

By: Nikki R. Porter

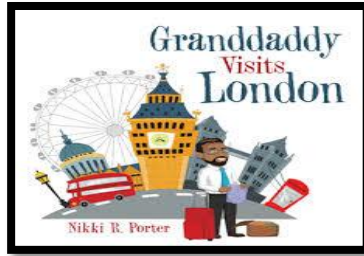

Hopefully you enjoyed reading Granddaddy Visits London. In the book, Lauren loved sharing Knock-Knock Jokes with her grandparents. Write your own jokes below.

Knock, knock. Who's there? Who! Who who? That's what an owl says!

Knock, knock. Who's there? Cow says. Cow says who? No silly, a cow says Mooooo!

Knock, knock. Who's there?

Knock, knock. Who's there?

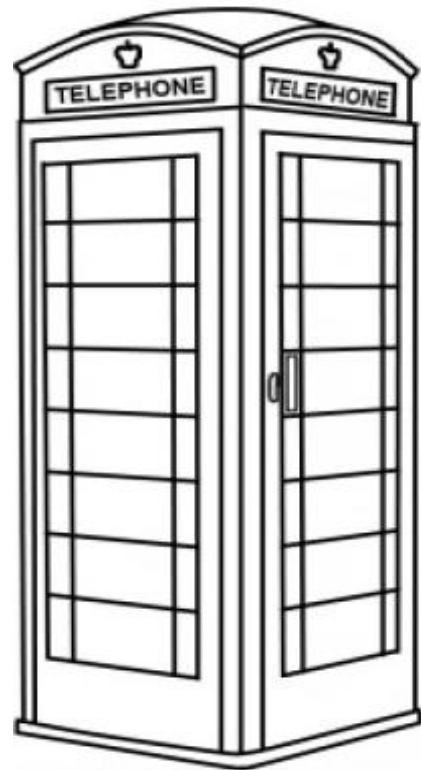

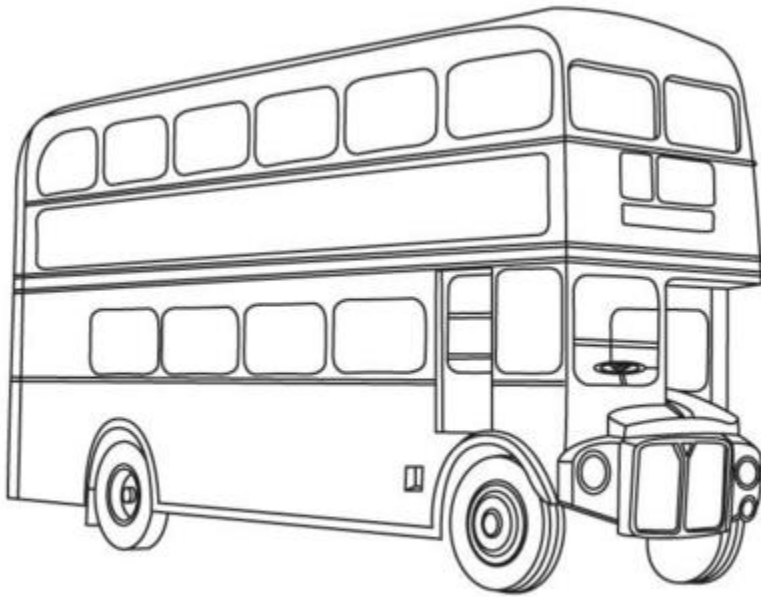

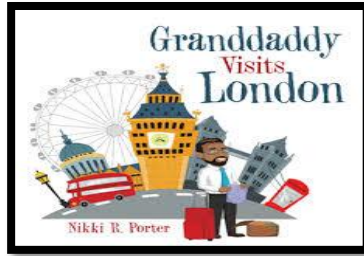

Granddaddy Visits London

By: Nikki R. Porter

Coloring Fun

Granddaddy Visits London

By: Nikki R. Porter

Alliteration is the repetition of a beginning sound of two or more words in a sentence to emphasize a description or a point.

Granddaddy Visits London uses alliteration to make the story more fun, creative, and interesting!

EXAMPLE

red rose

Write an adjective for each noun below that creates an alliterative phrase.

1) _____ dog

6) _____ friend

2) _____ picture

7) _____ mouse

3) _____ bicycle

8) _____ knot

4) _____ lamp

9) _____ orange

5) _____ tree

10) _____ wrist

